OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE COUNTY.

THURSDAY, MAY 4, 1865.

THE NEWS.

J. WILKES BOOTH, the assassin of President LINCOLN, was shot on the 26th ult., by a squad of soldiers and two detectives, making in all 28 men. They pursued BOOTH and HARROLD, his accomplice, across the Potomac river, from Maryland into Virginia, and run them into a barn near Port Royal, on the Rappahannock river. They demanded them to surrender but BOOTH obstinately refused, and said he would shoot the first man who attempted to arrest them. The squad then set fire to the barn, and HARROLD came out and gave himself up. Soon after BOOTH came to the door, pointing a revolver at one of the squad, when Serg't. CORBETT fired, the ball taking effect in BOOTH's neck, and he fell. They then took him out of the barn and laid him away, where he expired in about three hours. He and HARROLD were then taken to Washington, and on arrival HARROLD was put in prison and BOOTH's body, after being identified, was secretly disposed of, and where his remains will never be made public. Most probably some surgeon will endeavor to make his body useful, or the sharks will have a fine meal over his loathsome and stinking carcass.

J. B. BOOTH, WILKES brother, is in jail at Washington, as an accomplice in the murder. DR. MUDD, of Port Tobacco, Maryland, helped him away. He is now in jail at Washington.

The authorities at Washington, have positive information that the plot of the assassination of A. LINCOLN originated in Canada, and approved by the leaders in Richmond and other rebel cities in the Southern Confederacy, and known by many sympathizers in the North.

Our government has demanded of the British Government the surrender of the criminals in the plot, now in the Canadas, to the authorities of the U. S.

THERE are now no armed body of rebels east of the Mississippi River, and not more than 10,000 in the whole Confederacy, which are west of the River.

THE Government is taking measures to reduce the army and the expenses generally.

U. S. BONDS have raised in Europe, since the capture of LEE, from 50 to 68 cents, and Confederate have fallen down to 25 cts. on the dollar.

THE authorities at Washington have telegraphed to all the officers holding commands, to use all dilligence to capture JEFF. DAVIS. At last reports (25 h of April) he was in South Carolina, making his way for Mexico.

LETTERS TO SCHOOL BOARDS—No 1.

OWATONNA, May 4, 1865.

Gentlemen:—You are, many of you, about to enter upon the discharge of a new and important duty. The Educational interest of the District of which you are officers, is in your hands for protection and promotion. Through your efforts it will advance rapidly in the accomplishment of its mission: elevating and refining the masses, giving to all a proper conception of life, and of the necessity of using the multiform powers of the mind for some high and holy purpose; Or, through your neglect, it will not only fail to accomplish any positive good, but will give rise to a negative influence, (because there is no neutral ground to be occupied by you,) which is positively degrading and criminal.

If you neglect or abuse the opportunity you now edjoy of educating the community in which you live, and thereby fail to make it pure and virtuous, you will, at the expiration of your term of office, find your constituency lower in the scale of virtuous intelligence, and farther out upon the highway of bigotry and superstition than they would have been had these advantages never been yours. But, you enquire, What is our duty in the premises? I answer: First—Repair your school houses, and make them as neat and comfortable as possible.—Many of the houses in which schools are taught, are almost totally unfit for that purpose.—Still they are all you have, and I do not expect you to build new ones to take their places, during the coming summer, but I do expect you to make these more comfortable. If you value the lives of your children, purify those old log houses, cleanse them thoroughly. It is not enough that you wash the floor, the benches, and the windows: those old logs, with their vermin, and those crevices, chinked with mud and straw, instead of wholesome lime-mortar, and the low ceiling, scarce above the head of the teacher—Indian-tanned with the smoke of many winters—need to be whitewashed and made wholesome, so that, when the pure air of Heaven comes in contact with them, it will not be tainted with the odor of their infection.

If you would see your children bloom like the offspring of Nature, in her wilder forms, give them the benefit of sunlight and pure air. If you desire your children to possess healthy and vigorous minds, you must supply the demands of their physical nature.

Too much care cannot be used in preparing suitable seats and desks for the scholars. At all events you should make them comfortable. In a wall which, in other respects, is perhaps nearly perpendicular, you will find one log projecting in beyond the others, three or four inches, and just high enough to reach the shoulders of those who are "seated around the outside," throwing the upper part of the body forward, beyond a perpendicular, thus causing an undue exertion of the muscles, to keep in this semi-upright position, or actually throwing the chest of the child forward against the bench for support. In the one case, producing curvature of the spine, and a general derangement of the form, and in the other, contraction of the chest, and consequently a diseased condition of the lungs.

On the front seat, a slab, with the flat side up, perched upon four pegs, is seated a row of little children, not one of whom can touch his feet to the floor. They are expected not only to "keep still," but "to study." Gentlemen, how long can either of you, similarly situated—seated upon a hard board, with no support for your feet—sit still, and confine your mind to some abstract rule or principle? It is preposterous, you cannot and will not do it. Manhood, in your case, assumes the exercise of its high prerogative, and you arrange yourselves in accordance with the laws which regulate your physical life. But the child has not this liberty of choice. He is required to "sit still, and for a violation of the command is punished. These little children need a support, not only for the feet, but for the back. Nature in them is striving to develop itself, and it needs all its vital forces for the completion of its own design. They should not be employed in maintaining the child in unnatural positions.

Again, then let me entreat you to provide your School Houses with suitable seats and desks, for the comfort of the children. You should, in my judgment, also assist in arranging the details and establishing the government of the schools. First, you should secure a perfect uniformity of text books.—This is essential; nothing can be more utterly destructive of interest and progress than a multiplicity of authors in school. No Recitation-room should be without a good Blackboard, Crayon, Pointer and Eraser. The School Officers may also safely make some rules to be observed by the scholars, for the preservation of the house: rules to secure punctuality—for no school can be a success with only a quasi attendance—rules enjoining the use of the testament in school, for I believe the successful teacher must carry the spelling book in one hand and the Bible in the other. In fact there are many ways in which a judicious School Board may co-operate with the teacher, for the improvement of the condition of the school.

I reserve other subjects, in connection with your official duties, for further remark in a future communication. Respectfully,

Your obedient servant.
A. A. HARWOOD,
Supt. Schools, Steele Co.

HORRIBLE TRAGEDY.

MR. EDITOR:—I herewith furnish you with an account of a most terrible tragedy, which was perpetrated in this city during the last week. A tragedy horrible to contemplate, and which has not its parallel in the annals of Steele County.

It is a matter of notoriety, that, for some months past, there has existed among the officers of this county, deep feeling of jealousy in respect to the peculiar merits of their respective guests, viz: Mr. Chavall, the guest of the Register of Deeds; Mr. Torrowx, of the Auditor, and Mr. Coshon, of the Treasurer. But there was not the slightest suspicion existing, that this feeling of jealousy would lead to such dreadful results.

It appears that this feeling of jealousy reached its culminating point on the 26th of April, when the Auditor, with his eyes gleaming with determination, his lips firmly compressed, his hand grasping the fatal steel, rushed into the room occupied by the unfortunate Mr. Coshon, and commenced a furious and murderous attack upon him. Poor Mr. C, frightened and appalled at this sudden attack, uttered the most piercing and heartrending shrieks for mercy. But alas! there was no help for him: his cries and struggles were unheeded by his murderous assailant. Again and again did the steel of his foe pierce him in a tender part, and not until his terrible enemy had accomplished his fell purpose, did he release his bleeding and struggling victim. Although the entertainer of Mr. Coshon (aided by the advice of the most eminent Eclectic physician in town) promptly administered the best remedies within his reach, the poor victim of this terrible jealousiy gradually sank under his injuries, until death put an end to his sufferings.

We learn that the authorities have not yet succeeded in arresting the perpetrator of this awful crime.

LATER.—Latest reports concerning the death of Mr. Coshon, one of the most astounding and incredulous circumstances connected with the above terrible tragedy, is (and we get it from reliable authority) that the County Treasurer, who was the host of the late Mr. Coshon, not only did not attempt to prevent the murderous attack made upon his guest, but actually assisted the County Auditor, by holding his struggling victim. To what a depth can the depravity of man sink him! O, horror of horrors!

Although, as yet, there is not sufficient evidence to warrant the arrest of the entertainer of Mr. Chavall as an accomplice in this atrocious affair, yet there is an evident feeling and belief that the result of the inquiries now being made, will involve him also in this damnable plot, formed, as it is firmly believed, for the destruction of the unfortunate Mr. Coshon, alias the County Treasurer's "Gentleman Pig!" *

P. S.—The murderers are still at large.
Owatonna, May 2, 1865. *

THE FOAL BUSINESS.—Josh Billings, in descanting upon fowls, says of shanghais—"It kosts az much to board 1 as it duz a stage hoss, and yu might as well undertake to fat a fanning mill by running oats thru it."

Former officeholders under the United States are said to be arriving from Richmond and already becoming applicants for fat berths at Washington.

VALUABLE MINES.—A Wilmington, N. C., paper says, "Some of our soldiers, diving in the swamps back of the town, have struck a mine from which have already been taken several hundred barrels of turpentine and a quantity of rosin.—The superiority of these mines over Pennsylvania oil wells is that the product here is found in barrels all ready for market, the only expense necessary in working them being the cost of labor in rolling the barrels out. Further explorations are made."

Doctor—"This hyar babe's got the smallpox; and I aint posted on pustules. We must approach this case by circular treatment. You give the little cuss this draught. That'll send him into fits. Then send for me. I'm a stunner on fits."

CASTOR OIL.—The manufacture of castor oil from the beans that grow wild in the Hawaiian Islands, has been commenced at Honolulu, for the first time, with every prospect of success. Heretofore the beans have been exported for manufacture elsewhere.

—It is reported that, on the reception of news of the President's fearful death at the Rensselaer House in Albany, an object dressed in woman's garb, and employed as a servant in the house, exclaimed, "I'm glad of it! He ought to be killed! I'm glad he's dead!" All the gentlemen at the breakfast-table rose in anger, and one of them, a soldier, drew his pistol, and threatened to shoot her on the spot. Mr. Brayton, the proprietor, turned her into the street instantly.

The State Department has promulgated the following:

"Formal notice of the termination of the Reciprocity Treaty was given by Mr. Adams to the British Government on the 17th of March, and its receipt was duly acknowledged on that day.

MORTGAGE SALE.—Whereas, Mathias Malget and Susan Margaret Malget, his wife, of the county of Rice, and Territory (now State) of Minnesota, did on the 26th day of April A. D. 1857 execute and deliver to Shields & McCutcheon (a firm composed of James Shields and Joseph McCutcheon) of the same place, their deed of mortgage, whereby they granted and conveyed to said Shields & McCutcheon, their heirs and assigns forever, the following tract or parcel of land, situated and being in the county of Steele and Territory (now State) aforesaid, described as follows, to wit: The west half of the north west quarter of Section number eight, and the south west quarter of the south west quarter of Section number five and the south east quarter of the south east quarter of Section number six, all in Township number one hundred and seven north, of Range number twenty-one west, containing 160 acres, more or less, to secure to them, their heirs and assigns, the payment of the sum of four hundred dollars, due in twelve months after date, with interest at the rate of three per cent. per month from date till due, and five per cent. per month from due till paid, interest payable semi-annually, according to the condition of said Mathias Malget's promissory note, bearing even date with said mortgage, which mortgage was duly recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds, in and for said county of Steele, on the twenty-eighth day of May A. D. 1857, at eleven o'clock A. M., in Book "A" of Mortgages, on pages 311 and 312. And whereas, said James Shields, one partner of said firm of Shields & McCutcheon, did, on the twenty-sixth day of August, A. D. 1859, sell and assign unto said Joseph McCutcheon, the only remaining partner of said firm, all his right, title and interest, in and to said mortgage and the note thereby secured, which assignment was duly recorded in said Register's Office, on the twenty-eighth day of November, A. D. 1860, at 9 o'clock A. M., in Book "C" of Mortgages, on page 277. And whereas, default has been made in the condition of said mortgage by the non-payment of said note whereon there is claimed to be due at the date of this notice the sum of seven hundred and thirty-seven dollars, to wit: four hundred dollars of principal and three hundred and thirty-seven dollars interest thereon, and no proceedings having been instituted at law or otherwise to recover the debt secured by said mortgage, and no part thereof having been paid; Now therefore, notice is hereby given, that by virtue of a power of sale in said mortgage contained, and of the Statute in such case made and provided, said mortgage will be foreclosed and said mortgaged premises will be sold at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, at the front door of the office of the Register of Deeds, in the city of Owatonna in said county of Steele, on the fifth day of May, A. OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE COUNTY.

THURSDAY, MAY 4, 1865.

THE NEWS.

J. WILKES BOOTH, the assassin of President LINCOLN, was shot on the 26th ult., by a squad of soldiers and two detectives, making in all 28 men. They pursued BOOTH and HARROLD, his accomplice, across the Potomac river, from Maryland into Virginia, and run them into a barn near Port Royal, on the Rappahannock river. They demanded them to surrender but BOOTH obstinately refused, and said he would shoot the first man who attempted to arrest them. The squad then set fire to the barn, and HARROLD came out and gave himself up. Soon after BOOTH came to the door, pointing a revolver at one of the squad, when Serg't. CORBETT fired, the ball taking effect in BOOTH's neck, and he fell. They then took him out of the barn and laid him away, where he expired in about three hours. He and HARROLD were then taken to Washington, and on arrival HARROLD was put in prison and BOOTH's body, after being identified, was secretly disposed of, and where his remains will never be made public. Most probably some surgeon will endeavor to make his body useful, or the sharks will have a fine meal over his loathsome and stinking carcass.

J. B. BOOTH, WILKES brother, is in jail at Washington, as an accomplice in the murder. Dr. MUDD, of Port Tobacco, Maryland, helped him away. He is now in jail at Washington.

The authorities at Washington, have positive information that the plot of the assassination of A. LINCOLN originated in Canada, and approved by the leaders in Richmond and other rebel cities in the Southern Confederacy, and known by many sympathizers in the North.

Our government has demanded of the British Government the surrender of the criminals in the plot, now in the Canadas, to the authorities of the U. S.

THERE are now no armed body of rebels east of the Mississippi River, and not more than 10,000 in the whole Confederacy, which are west of the River.

THE Government is taking measures to reduce the army and the expenses generally.

U. S. BONDS have raised in Europe, since the capture of LEE, from 50 to 66 cents, and Confederate have fallen down to 25 cts. on the dollar.

THE authorities at Washington have telegraphed to all the officers holding commands, to use all dilligence to capture JEFF. DAVIS. At last reports (25 h of April) he was in South Carolina, making his way for Mexico.

LETTERS TO SCHOOL BOARDS—No 1.

OWATONNA, May 4, 1865.

Gentlemen:—You are, many of you, about to enter upon the discharge of a new and important duty. The Educational interest of the District of which you are officers, is in your hands for protection and promotion. Through your efforts it will advance rapidly in the accomplishment of its mission: elevating and refining the masses, giving to all a proper conception of life, and of the necessity of using the multiform powers of the mind for some high and holy purpose; Or, through your neglect, it will not only fail to accomplish any positive good, but will give rise to a negative influence, (because there is no neutral ground to be occupied by you,) which is positively degrading and criminal.

If you neglect or abuse the opportunity you now edjoy of educating the community in whi h you live, and thereby fail to make it pure and virtuous, you will, at the expiration of your term of office, find your constituency lower in the scale of virtuous intelligence, and farther out upon the highway of bigotry and superstition than they would have been had these advantages never been yours. But, you enquire, What is our duty in the premises? I answer: First—Repair your school houses, and make them as neat and comfortable as possible.—Many of the houses in which schools are taught, are almost totally unfit for that purpose.—Still they are all you have, and I do not expect you to build new ones to take their places, during the coming summer, but I do expect you to make these more comfortable. If you value the lives of your children, purify those old log houses, cleanse them thoroughly. It is not enough that you wash the floor, the benches, and the windows: those old logs, with their vermin, and those crevices, chinked with mud and straw, instead of wholesome lime-mortar, and the low ceiling, scarce above the head of the teacher—Indian-tanned with the smoke of many winters—need to be whitewashed and made wholesome, so that, when the pure air of Heaven comes in contact with them, it will not be tainted with the odor of their infection.

If you would see your children bloom like the offspring of Nature, in her wilder forms, give them the benefit of sunlight and pure air. If you desire your children to possess healthy and vigorous minds, you must supply the demands of their physical nature.

Too much care cannot be used in preparing suitable seats and desks for the scholars. At all events you should make them comfortable. In a will which, in other respects, is perhaps nearly perpendicular, you will find one log projecting in beyond the others, three or four inches, and just high enough to reach the shoulders of these who are "seated around the outside," throwing the upper part of the body forward, beyond a perpendicular, thus causing an undue exertion of the muscles, to keep in this semi-upright position, or actually throwing the chest of the child forward against the bench for support. In the one case, producing curvature of the spine, and a general derangement of the form, and in the other, contraction of the chest, and consequently a diseased condition of the lungs.

On the front seat, a slab, with the flat side up, perched upon four pegs, is seated a row of little children, not one of whom can touch his feet to the floor. They are expected not only to "keep still," but "to study." Gentlemen, how long can either of you, similarly situated—seated upon a hard board, with no support for your feet—sit still, and confine your mind to some abstract rule or principle? It is preposterous, you cannot and will not do it. Manhood, in your case, assumes the exercise of its high prerogative, and you arrange yourselves in accordance with the laws which regulate your physical life. But the child has not this liberty of choice. He is required to "sit still, and for a violation of the command is punished. These little children need a support, not only for the feet, but for the back.—Nature in them is striving to develop itself, and it needs all its vital forces for the completion of its own design. They should not be employed in maintaining the child in unnatural positions.

Again, then let me entreat you to provide your School Houses with suitable seats and desks, for the comfort of the children. You should, in my judgment, also assist in arranging the details and establishing the government of the schools. First, you should secure a perfect uniformity of text books.—This is essential; nothing can be more utterly destructive of interest and progress than a multiplicity of authors in school. No Recitation-room should be without a good Blackboard, Crayon, Pointer and Eraser. The School Officers may also safely make some rules to be observed by the scholars, for the preservation of the house: rules to secure punctuality—for no school can be a success with only a quasi attendance—rules enjoining the use of the testament in school, for I believe the successful teacher must carry the spelling book in one hand and the Bible in the other. In fact there are many ways in which a judicious School Board may co-operate with the teacher, for the improvement of the condition of the school.

I reserve other subjects, in connection with your official duties, for further remark in a future communication. Respectfully.

Your obedient servant.
A. A. HARWOOD,
Supt. Schools, Steele Co.

HORRIBLE TRAGEDY.

MR. EDITOR:—I herewith furnish you with an account of a most terrible tragedy, which was perpetrated in this city during the last week. A tragedy horrible to contemplate, and which has not its parallel in the annals of Steele County.

It is a matter of notoriety, that, for some months past, there has existed among the officers of this county, deep feeling of jealousy in respect to the peculiar merits of their respective guests, viz: Mr. Chavall, the guest of the Register of Deeds; Mr. Torrowx, of the Auditor, and Mr. Coshon, of the Treasurer. But there was not the slightest suspicion existing, that this feeling of jealousy would lead to such dreadful results.

It appears that this feeling of jealousy reached its culminating point on the 26th of April, when the Auditor, with his eyes gleaming with determination, his lips firmly compressed, his hand grasping the fatal steel, rushed into the room occupied by the unfortunate Mr. Coshon, and commenced a furious and murderous attack upon him. Poor Mr. C., frightened and, appalled at this sudden attack, uttered the most piercing and heartrending shrieks for mercy. But alas! there was no help for him: his cries and struggles were unheeded by his murderous assailant. Again and again did the steel of his foe pierce him in a tender part, and not until his terrible enemy had accomplished his fell purpose, did he release his bleeding and struggling victim. Although the entertainer of Mr. Coshon (aided by the advice of the most eminent Eclectic physician in town) promptly administered the best remedies within his reach, the poor victim of this terrible jealously gradually sank under his injuries, until death put an end to his sufferings.

We learn that the authorities have not yet succeeded in arresting the perpetrator of this awful crime.

LATER.—Latest reports concerning the death of Mr. Coshon, one of the most astounding and incredulous circumstances connected with the above terrible tragedy, is (and we get it from reliable authority) that the County Treasurer, who was the host of the late Mr. Coshon, not only did not attempt to prevent the murderous attack made upon his guest, but actually assisted the County Auditor, by holding his struggling victim. To what a depth can the depravity of man sink him! O, horror of horrors!

Although, as yet, there is not sufficient evidence to warrant the arrest of the entertainer of Mr. Chavall as an accomplice in this atrocious affair, yet there is an evident feeling and belief that the result of the inquiries now being made, will involve him also in this damnable plot, formed, as it is firmly believed, for the destruction of the unfortunate Mr. Coshon, alias the County Treasurer's "Gentleman Pig!" *

P. S.—The murderers are still at large.

Owatonna, May 2, 1865. *

THE FOWL BUSINESS.—Josh Billings, in descanting upon fowls, says of shanghais—"It kosts az much to board 1 as it duz a stage hoss, and yu might as well undertake to fat a fanning mill by running oats thru it."

Former officeholders under the United States are said to be arriving from Richmond and already becoming applicants for fat berths at Washington.

VALUABLE MINES.—A Wilmington, N. C., paper says, "Some of our soldiers, diving in the swamps back of the town, have struck a mine from which have already been taken several hundred barrels of turpentine and a quantity of rosin.—The superiority of these mines over Pennsylvania oil wells is that the product here is found in barrels all ready for market, the only expense necessary in working thembeing the cost of labor in rolling the barrels out. Further explorations are made."

Doctor—"This hyar babe's got the smallpox; and I aint posted on pustules. We must approach this case by circular treatment. You give the little cuss this draught. That'll send him into fits. Then send for me. I'm a stunner on fits."

CASTOR OIL.—The manufacture of castor oil from the beans that grow wild in the Hawaiian Islands, has been commenced at Honolulu, for the first time, with every prospect of success. Heretofore the beans have been exported for manufacture elsewhere.

—It is reported that, on the reception of news of the President's fearful death at the Rensselaer House in Albany, an object dressed in woman's garb, and employed as a servant in the house, exclaimed, "I'm glad of it! He ought to be killed! I'm glad he's dead!" All the gentlemen at the breakfast-table rose in anger, and one of them, a soldier, drew his pistol, and threatened to shoot her on the spot. Mr. Brayton, the proprietor, turned her into the street instantly.

The State Department has promulgated the following:

"Formal notice of the termination of the Reciprocity Treaty was given by Mr. Adams to the British Government on the 17th of March, and its receipt was duly acknowledged on that day.

MORTGAGE SALE.—Whereas, Mathias Malget and Susan Margaret Malget, his wife, of the county of Rice, and Territory (now State) of Minnesota, did on the 26th day of April A. D. 1857 execute and deliver to Shields & McCutchen (a firm composed of James Shields and Joseph McCutchen) of the same place, their deed of mortgage, whereby they granted and conveyed to said Shields & McCutchen, their heirs and assigns forever, the following tract or parcel of land, situated and being in the county of Steele and Territory (now State) aforesaid, described as follows, to wit: The west half of the north west quarter of Section number eight, and the south west quarter of the south west quarter of Section number five and the south east quarter of the south east quarter of Section number six, all in Township number one hundred and seven north, of Range number twenty-one west, containing 160 acres, more or less, to secure to them, their heirs and assigns, the payment of the sum of four hundred dollars, due in twelve months after date, with interest at the rate of three per cent. per month from date till due, and five per cent. per month from due till paid, interest payable semi-annually, according to the condition of said Mathias Malget's promissory note, bearing even date with said mortgage, which mortgage was duly recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds, in and for said county of Steele, on the twenty-eighth day of May A. D. 1857, at eleven o'clock A. M., in Book "A" of Mortgages, on pages 311 and 312. And whereas, said James Shields, one partner of said firm of Shields & McCutchen, did, on the twenty-sixth day of August, A. D. 1859, sell and assign unto said Joseph McCutchen, the only remaining partner of said firm, all his right, title and interest, in and to said mortgage and the note thereby secured, which assignment was duly recorded in said Register's Office, on the twenty-eighth day of November, A. D. 1860, at 9 o'clock A. M., in Book "C" of Mortgages, on page 277. And whereas, default has been made in the condition of said mortgage by the non-payment of said note whereon there is claimed to be due at the date of this notice the sum of seven hundred and thirty-seven dollars, to wit: four hundred dollars of principal and three hundred and thirty-seven dollars interest thereon, and no proceedings having been instituted at law or otherwise to recover the debt secured by said mortgage, and no part thereof having been paid; Now therefore, notice is hereby given, that by virtue of a power of sale in said mortgage contained, and of the Statute in such case made and provided, said mortgage will be foreclosed and said mortgaged premises will be sold at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, at the front door of the office of the Register of Deeds, in the city of Owatonna in said county of Steele, on the fifth day of May, A. D. 1865, at ten o'clock A. M. of that day, to satisfy the amount due on said mortgage, with the costs of sale, together with the sum of seventy dollars and fifty cents, being the tax on said premises for the years 1857, 1858, 1859, 1860, 1861, 1862 and 1863, and interest thereon paid by said McCutchen. Dated Faribault, March 23d, 1865. JOSEPH McCUTCHEN,
48-7t. Mortgagee and Assignee.

INTENTIONAL DUPLICATE EXPOSURE

The Owatonna Plaindealer.

HOME INTELLIGENCE.

☞ For Sale.—A number of very desirable lots in Owatonna, Medford and Wilton.—Also timber and farming lands. Inquire of J. B. Hooker. v3n2tf

☞ Weather.—The weather for the last week has been cold and rainy, and the roads extremely muddy. Vegetation has started but very little, but the prospect looks now more flattering.

☞ Plow Factory.—Mr. Eldridge has purchased a lot on the corner of Mill and Oak Streets, and has erected a building upon it for the purpose of manufacturing Plows, &c.

☞ The Atlantic Monthly, published in Boston, Mass., is one of the best of monthlies, and is highly esteemed by the reading community. We have just reived the May number, and we perused it with pleasure and profit, as usual.

☞ Still "Thar."—J. P. Gurr is at his old stand in Rice Lake, selling lots of Dry Goods, Groceries, Pine Lumber, &c., at reduced prices. He is an honorable dealer, and well calculated to gain the confidence of his patrons.

☞ Going East.—J. Newsalt will leave next week for the East, to purchase his Spring Stock of Clothing. He is intending to bring on a large and extensive assortment, that can but please the most genteel.

☞ Sorghum Seed.—J. M. Finch, of Clinton Falls, has a superior article of Sorghum Seed for sale, at 25 cents ℔ lb. He has more than he will need for his own use, and those wishing the article will find it at his house if they call soon.

☞ Our readers will notice the card of Thomas Nicholls, Esq., who has recently settled in our city from Chicago, for the purpose of practicing law. He is a gentleman of much experience, and we doubt not but that he will prove an ornament to the legal profession of the State.

☞ Bell.—Last Tuesday the Baptist Society raised the steeple and belfry to their church, and the bell also, and put it in a ringing condition. It is a good sounding bell for one of its size, and will prove quite an addition to the city. Long may it ring.

☞ We would say to our readers, that "in your affliction, possess ye your souls," for our County Auditor has concluded not to furnish any more of his lengthy epistles to his wayward Corinthians, and will give his parting admonitions in our next number, and then retire for the present.

☞ The May number of Harper's Monthly has arrived. It is a very useful appendage to the family library, and every month it has something new and interesting, of an historical character. All its readers admit frankly, that it is one of the best magazines published.

☞ "Our Young Folks," for May, has arrived, and we have no hesitancy in saying that it is the best thing of the kind that has made its appearance before the public. Every family should have a copy for the benefit of their children. It is published every month by Ticknor & Fields, Boston, Mass., for $2.00 a year.

☞ Millinery Store.—Mrs. Langley, as may be seen by referring to her new advertisement in this number, has started a Millinery Store over the People's Store, on Bridge St., where she keeps a beautiful assortment of Bonnets, &c., of the latest styles. Our citizens will find her a perfect lady, and prompt in business.

☞ Lands Sold.—D. Lindersmith sold, this week, thirty-two acres of land west of his house and the road, to A. B. Cornell, for 40 acres, including one-half the Stone Quarry, formerly owned by D. B. Potter. He has also sold six acres west of the road, to Mr. Bridenstine, which includes all of his land west of his residence.

☞ For Sale.—We solicit the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Rev. H. Chapin. He has advertised all his household goods for sale, and he must dispose of them before leaving, which will be in about two weeks. This is a fine opportunity for those wishing any such articles for their own use, as they will be sold cheap. Call and see them.

☞ National House.—D. P. Smith, the proprietor of this popular Hotel, keeps altogether the best and most congenial House for the traveling community, in Faribault. His table is always supplied with all that is essential for man's comfort and happiness, while everything is in order, and the most perfect harmony prevails throughout. No traveler can find a more desirable home, or one better calculated to cheer its weary inmates.

☞ The Place to Buy.—Soule Bros. are doing an extensive business. Their store is crowded with customers almost contsnually, and people say they can buy goods as cheap of them as at any other place in this section. We know, from experience, that they are selling more sugar for one dollar than at any other point. They are having the advantage over our other merchants, as their new goods have arrived, and of course have a better assortment.

☞ Council Proceedings.—Met pursuant to adjournment. Present—Mayor Hall, Aldermen Willsey, Kinyon, Oppliger, Crooker, Donaldson, Scruby, Recorder Kinyon.

Moved and seconded, that a highway tax of two days, be assessed against each male inhabitant liable to such tax, and placed in the hands of the Street Commissioner for collection. Carried.

Moved and seconded, that a highway tax of two and a half mills on the dollar valuation be assessed on the Real Estate of this city. Carried.

On motion, Council adjourned to first Monday in June next. H. M. KINYON, Redorder.

Owatonna, May 1, 1865.

Died.

In the town of Summit, Steele Co., April 24th, Arthur B., youngest son of Thomas J. and Marion A. Clark, aged 4 years, 6 months and 8 days.

Over the river the Boatman pale,
Carried another—the household pet;
His brown hair waved to the gentle gale.
My cherub boy, I see him yet:
He crossed on his bosom his dimpled hands,
And fearlessly entered the phantom bark.
We felt it glide from the silver sands,
And all our sunshine grew strangely dark.
We know he is safe, on the farther shore,
Where all the ransomed and the angels be.
Over the river, the mystic river,
My darling Arthur is waiting for me.

☞ Select School.—Prof. Andrews has moved into his new residence on Oak Street, at which place Mrs. Andrews proposes opening a Primary Select School, on Monday the 8th inst.

Mrs. Andrews is already known to our citizens as a teacher, and needs no recommend from us.—The location of the school on one of the pleasantests sites in the city—upon the bank of the river, and removed from the bustle of the town, will add to its attractions. We predict for her success, and trust she will be well patronized.

THE GREAT INVENTION OF THE AGE IN HOOP SKIRTS.

J. W. BRADLEY'S New Patent DUPLEX ELLIPTIC (or double) SPRING SKIRT.

WESTS', BRADLEY & CARY, (late J. I. & J. O. West,) SOLE PROPRIETORS and MANUFACTURERS, 97 Chambers and 79 and 81 Reade Sts., New York.

THIS INVENTION consists of Duplex (or two) Elliptic Steel Springs, ingeniously Braided Tightly and Firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most flexible Elastic and Durable Spring ever used. They seldom bend or breake like the Single Springs, and consequently preserve their perfect and beautiful shape twice as long as any other Skirt.

The WONDERFUL FLEXIBILITY and Great Comfort and pleasure to any lady wearing the Duplex Elliptic Skirt will be experienced particularly in all Crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm Chairs, for Promenade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded, when in use, to occupy a small place as easily as a Silk or Muslin Dress.

A lady having enjoyed the pleasure, comfort, and great convenience of wearing the "Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt" for a single day, will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses, and Young Ladies, they are superior to all others.

They are the best quality in every part, and unquestionably the Lightest, Most Desirable, Comfortable, and Economical Skirt ever made.

For Sale in all First-Class Stores in this city, and throughout the United States, and Canadas, Havana de Cuba, Mexico, South America, and the West Indies.

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED

STOMACH BITTERS.

A pure and powerful Tonic, corrective and alternative of wonderful efficacy in diseases of the Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirit, Constipation, Colic; Intermittent Fevers, Cramps and spasms, and all complaints of either Sex, arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or produced by causes.

NOTHING that is not wholesome, genial and restorative in its nature enters into the compression of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind, no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant; but it is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

It is well to be forearmed against disease, and, so far as the human system can be protected by human means against maladies engendered by an unwholesome atmosphere, impure water and other external causes, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS may be relied on as a safeguard.

In districts infested with Fever and Ague, it has been found infallible as a preventative and irresistible as a remedy and thousands who resort to it under apprehension of an attack escape the scourge; and thousands who neglect to avail themselves of its protective qualities in advance, are cured by a very brief course of this marvelous medicine. Fever and Ague patients, after being plied with quinine for months in vain, until fairly saturated with that dangerous alkaloid, are not unfrequently restored to health within a few days by the use of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated and the appetite restored by this agreeable Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of DYSPEPSIA and in less confirmed forms of INDIGESTION. Acting as a gentle and painless apperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the CONSTIPATION superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is most conclusive, and from both sexes

The agony of BILLOUS COLIC is immediately assuaged by a single dose of the stimulant, and by occasionally resorting to it, the return of the complaint may be prevented.

As a General Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional weakness, Premature Decay and Debility and Decepitude arising from OLD AGE, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to reenforce and re-establish them.

Last, but not least, it is The Only Safe Stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachies of the day.

No family medicine has been so universally, and it may be truly added, deservedly popular with the intelligent portion of the community, as HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.

Prepared by HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburg, Pennsylvania.

Sold by all Druggists, Grocers and Storekeepers everywhere. v2n9y1.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE COUNTY.

THURSDAY, MAY 11, 1865.

The Day of Humiliation and Mourning.

PROCLAMATION BY GOVERNOR MILLER OF MINNESOTA.

WHEREAS, The President of the United States has, by a proclamation issued by him, appointed and set apart the FIRST DAY OF JUNE NEXT, "to be observed wherever in the United States the flag of the country may be respected, as a day of humiliation and mourning," for the death of Abraham Lincoln, our late President, and "for again humbling ourselves before Almighty God, in order that the bereavement may be sanctified to the nation," now,

Therefore, I, STEPHEN MILLER, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby earnestly request the people of Minnesota to observe the said 1st day of June next in the manner recommended by the President of the United States, "by assembling in their respective places of worship, there to unite in solemn service to Almighty God, in memory of the good man who has been removed, so that all shall be occupied at the same time in contemplation of his virtues, and sorrow for his sudden and violent end;" and I also suggest that all business and labor be suspended on that day, so that it can be observed solemnly and devotedly by all good citizens in the usual manner of Fasting and Prayer to Almighty God, to the end that he may remove his chastening hand from the Nation, and grant unto us the blessings of peace, prosperity, of fraternal intercourse between all sections of our beloved land, and the perpetuity of our government.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my name and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the Capitol, in the City of St. Paul, this Second day of May, in the Year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five. STEPHEN MILLER.

By the Governor:
DAVID BLAKELY, Secretary of State.

THE INDIAN RAID.

A BOY AND MAN KILLED.

From the St. Paul Press, 10th inst.

Gen. Sibley received dispatches yesterday from Lieut. Col. Pfaender, dated Fort Ridgely the 7th. He says that the white half-breed and Indian trappers from the upper country are at Wood Lake.—All are safe except one man who was wounded by Indians before reaching that place.

Nothing has yet been heard from the scout, Duncan Kennedy, and fears for his safety are increased.

Lieut. Parleman is still in Blue Earth county, co-operating with Col. Smith. Lieut. Van Doran is on the Watonwan, and Lieut. Brierly in the Cottonwood regions. These forces completely cover all the settlements with patrols.

INDIANS SEEN NEAR YELLOW MEDICINE.

Another letter has been received by Gen. Sibley, written by Joseph La Framboise at Yellow Medicine on the 5th inst. It says that two Frenchmen, trappers, named Shotu and Narcis Frenier, had been attacked near there by Indians and one wounded in the hand. They saw a party of Indians, and some wanted to kill them, but they finally escaped, because the Indians knew their relations. The Indians said there were five parties coming down, bound for Spirit Lake, Sioux City and Mankato. They said the English had furnished them ammunition and told them to come down and do what they could.

A BOY REPORTED KILLED.

Mr. Foreman arrived from Sioux City, via Mankato, yesterday morning. He heard that a boy had been killed Sunday evening by the same Indians who killed the soldier Jolley. After the soldiers returned to Mankato and obtained reinforcements, they started in pursuit again, and overtaking the Indians, drove them into a thicket. A boy (not of the pursuing party) rode along upon the opposite side of the thicket, unaware of the presence of the Indians, and was shot dead. His horse was also killed.

LATER.

A correspondent writing at Mankato, Monday night, informs us that the reported killing of a boy was correct. He was a boy named Frank York, between ten and eleven years old. Four balls struck him killing him instantly.

Pursuit of the Indians, which had become a little lax, was again renewed after this occurrence, but none were killed. Lieut. Col. Pfaender had arrived in Mankato and was directing the military operations.

The latest report was that a man had been killed near Cobb's Mills, about seven miles from Mankato, and another wounded.

—The Tribune's Washington special May 4th, says: "Mrs. Lincoln's nervous system seemed stronger and more composed yesterday, but she is laboring under great depression again, in contemplation of the burial of Mr. Lincoln at Springfild to-day. She will leave the White House as soon as permitted by her physician, and proceed directly to Illinois, —The Richmond Whig of the 22d states that Mosby took leave of his men at Salem, Fauquier county, telling them to disband and return home; that he was bound for Texas, and did not want them to accompany him, as it might put their necks in the halter. He then made off with a few of his old companions.

NEWS ITEMS.

The Tribune's Washington special says: The President has been strongly urged by prominent gentlemen here to subject, to arrest and treat such men as "Brick" Pomeroy of the LaCrosse Wisconsin Democrat, and the Editor of the Chicago Times, who, during the past year, have publicly advised and incited the assassination of Mr. Lincoln. The subject is receiving serious consideration.

—The Washington Republicon says: "Neither of the statements detailing the mysterious manner of finally disposing of the body of the Assassin are true. Colonel Baker and his brother, Lieutenant Baker, are the only persons living who know what disposal was made of it, and they are under oath to reveal the fact to no human being. Any statement professing to detail how or where the remains were deposited, is not only guess work, but a serious reflection on the faithfulness of Col. Baker and his brother."

—A large number of resignations of army and navy officers are now daily being received at the War and Navy Departments which are being accepted as fast as received, the Government having decided to reduce the land and naval force as speedily as possible, in order to assist in reducing the expenses of the Quartermaster's Department.

—The Richmond Whig of the 4th states that Robert Ould, late Confedrate Commissioner of Exchange, and Mr. W. H. Hatch, his assistant, and several other attaches of the Bureau, have been arrested on an order from Washington, upon the charge connected with the administration of affairs devolving on them.

—Robert Lincoln and Judge Davis have selected a block near the center of Oak Ridge Cemetery, as the spot in which Mr. Lincoln's remains shall be finally interred. The selection is a most beautiful one, and elicits very general approbation. It contains from two to three acres. It is near Springfield, Illinois.

—"Gov. Aiken, of S. C., was closeted on the 4th inst., with President Johnson. He had along interview with Secretary Stanton last evening. He has the freedom of the city, and enjoys the society of members of his family, who came on with him, from all of which it is argued that he is in aid of the Government, rather than to receive its discipline."

—The rebel Secretary Mallory has Surrendered. This is considered a new trick of sharp practice, rather than an evidence of returning loyalty.

LATEST NEWS.

NEW YORK, May 3.—The Herald's North Carolina dispatches give various rumors of the whereabouts of Jeff. Davis, but none later or more definite than that last week, which represented him in fight one day ahead of Stoneman. The report that he was obliged to abandon his specie train is contradicted.

NEW YORK, May 8.—The Richmond Whig of the 6th contains an order from Gen. Halleck, that after the 20th ult., persons found in arms against the United States, in Virginia and North Carolina, will be treated as rebel deserters and outlaws Persons assisting in organizing guerrilla bands and continuing hostilities against the United States, will be tried by a military commission, and be subject to death.

Military officers are to perserve order and reconcile differences between freedmen and their masters. Freedmen are obliged to work, but may select their own employers. For minors not cared for by parents, the apprentice system is to be introduced.

NEW YORK, May 9.—The Herald's South Carolina correspondence says when negotiations for Johnson's surrender was commenced he had about 50,000 troops, but of these not more than 30,000 waited to be paroled, so undisciplined and anxious were they to get out of the army and returned home. They stole all the horses they could from their officers and struck off across the country, engageing in in discrimimate plundering.

Gen. Johnston admitted he had no control over them. He spoke very bitterly of Davis, attributing all the rebel failures to his administration bungling.

Hardee stated that he saw, two or three years ago, that the rebel cause could not succeed, and acknowledged that the chivalry, distasteful as it might be to them would now be compelled to work for their living. He cousiders South Carolina the worst whipped State in the Union.

NEW YORK, May 6.—The Erie Rail road Car manufactory at Jersey City was destroyed by fire early this A. M. Loss estimated at $125,000. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.

ST. LOUIS, May 6.—John A. Blackburn charged with complicity in the assassination conspiracy was to-day arrested at St. Louis.

NEW YORK, May 6.—New Orleans dates of the 29th ult., says the river is still raising up, and overflow is already very great; causing an immense amount of suffering and loss on the adjoining plantations. The country on the east inundated for many miles. Many of the inhabitants are in a starving condition, fears are entertained of a more destructive flood than ever before occurred. A daily line of Steamers has been established between Mobile and New Orleans. Two rebel rams, and five steamers are known to be at Demopolis, Alabama. There are but few rebel troops there, and they are greatly demoralized.

CAIRO, May 6.—Gen. Meridith commanding western Kentucky, has summoned all bands of armed men in hostility to the Government within his district, to surrender previous to the 20th of May, on the terms granted to Lee, under penalty of being treated as outlaws.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 2

The municipal election in Los Angelos to-day resulted in the election of the entire Union ticket. This place has always heretofore been a strong secession sympathizing district.

BALTIMORE, May 4.

All restrictions on trade in the States of Deleware, Maryland, Pennsylvania and Western Airginia, are removed by order of the Secretary of the Treasurery.

NEW YORK, May 4.

The Times' Washington special says a letter recieved here from Mobile says that government officers have information of the existence in various portions of the State, of over half a million bales of cotton, which will soon be brought to Mobile by its owners.

NEW YORK, April 4.

The Herald's special says it is understood that a formal demand has been made upon the Canadian Government for the surrender of such of the assassins and conspirators as may be with its jurisdiction.

NEW YORK, May 6.—The World's Charlston corresponbent says [some body's] forces had yesterday afternoon returned from its expedition into the interior, having distroyed immense quantities of stores.

The guerrillas have become troublesome in the southern part of the State. On the 27th ult. a party of them made their appearance within six miles of Charleston, and took up some railroad track.

The rebel ram Columbia, which sunk at Magnolia creek has been raised and found to be not much injured. She will be brought to the North.

The secessionists of Charlston were with joy on learning of the assassination of President Lincoln, and it is said that women were actually so profane and sacrilegious as to get down on their knees and express their thanks to God for this enormous crime; but the sudden arrest of Ex-Gov. Aiken appeared to bring them to their senses, and they immediately became more discreet in their conduct.—Mr. Aiken's arrest and the arrest of Mr. Marshall who refuses to substitute the prayer of the President of the U. S. for that which he had been offering for Jeff. Davis has caused much excitement among the Charleston rebels, they insist that Gov. Aiken has never been anything but a Union man.

NEW YORK, May 6.—The Time's Richmond correspondent says, the notorious chief of the rebel detective squad, Sam. McCubbin, has surrendred himself.—McCubbin left Richhmond on Sunday, April 2d in charge of the treasure which the rebel Secretary, Trenholm, had reserved for any emergency that might arise. He left Jefferson Davis, Trenholom, Benjamin, Extra Billy Smith, and a host of other leading confederates, at Greensboro. They ate, drank and slept on the cars, as the inhabitants refused to allow them to enter their dwellings, fearing they might be held responsible for harboring rebels.

Mr. Trenholm was taken very sick at Goldsdoro, and visited the house of one of the leading men there who asked him to exchange gold for confederate scrip. The Secretary refused on the plea that North Carolina had not furnished any of it, and that it belonged to the State of Virginia. Before they left for the South they distributed a considerable quantity of gold among the party as a precautionary measure, in event of their being hard pushed.

THE GREAT INVENTION OF THE AGE IN

WESTS', BRADLEY & CARY, (late J. I. & J. O. West,) SOLE PROPRIETORS and MANUFACTURERS, 97 Chambers and 79 and 81 Reade Sts., New York.
THIS INVENTION consists of DUPLEX (or two) Elliptic Steel Springs, ingeniously Braided Tightly and Firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most flexible Elastic and Durable Spring ever used. They seldom bend or break like the Single Springs, and consequently preserve their perfect and beautiful shape twice as long as any other Skirt.
The WONDERFUL FLEXIBILITY and Great Comfort and pleasure to any lady wearing the Duplex Elliptic Skirt will be experienced particularly in all Crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm Chairs, for Promenade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded, when in use, to occupy a small place as easily as a Silk or Muslin Dress.
A lady having enjoyed the pleasure, comfort, and great convenience of wearing the "Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt" for a single day, will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses, and Young Ladies, they are superior to all others.
They are the best quality in every part, and unquestionably the Lightest, most Desirable, Comfortable, and Economical Skirt ever made.

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED

STOMACH BITTERS.

A pure and powerful Tonic, corrective and alternative of wonderful efficacy in diseases of the Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirit, Constipation, Colic: Intermittent Fevers, Cramps and spasms, and all complaints of either Sex, arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or produced by causes.

NOTHING that is not wholesome, genial and restorative in its nature enters into the compression of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind, no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant; but it is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

It is well to be forearmed against disease, and, so far as the human system can be protected by human means against maladies engendered by an unwholesome atmosphere, impure water and other external causes, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS may be relied on as a safeguard.

In districts infested with Fever and Ague, it has been found infallible as a preventative and irresistible as a remedy and thousands who resort to it under apprehension of an attack escape the scourge; and thousands who neglect to avail themselves of its protective qualities in advance, are cured by a very brief course of this marvelous medicine. Fever and Ague patients, after being plied with quinine for months in vain, until fairly saturated with that dangerous alkaloid, are not unfrequently restored to health within a few days by the use of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated and the appetite restored by this agreeable Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of DYSPEPSIA and in less confirmed forms of INDIGESTION. Acting as a gentle and painless apperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the CONSTIPATION superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is most conclusive, and from both sexes.

The agony of BILIOUS COLIC is immediately assuaged by a single dose of the stimulant, and by occasionally resorting to it, the return of the complaint may be prevented.

As a General Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional weakness, Premature Decay and Debility and Decepitude arising from OLD AGE, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to reenforce and re-establish them.

Last, but not least, it is The Only Safe Stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

No family medicine has been so universally, and it may be truly added, deservedly popular with the intelligent portion of the community, as HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.

Prepared by HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburg, Pennsylvania.

Sold by all Druggists, Grocers and Storekeepers everywhere. v2n9y1.

GRACE HARVARD.

BY HELEN PEYTON.

From Godey's Lady's Book.

"Heroines are always beautiful. I wish some one would write a book with a common-place heroine! I mean one like the girls we meet every day!"

I smiled quietly, as my young niece made the remark upon closing a modern novel.

"Grace, said I, "suppose you should open a book and find, drawn upon the first page, a portrait of the principal character, and see that she was not even pretty, would you feel sufficient interest in her to read the story?"

"I don't know, aunt."

"Well, I do, my dear. In fiction why not choose all that is beautiful in real life—everything that is bright, and none of earth's shadows? We must, necessarily, meet with much that is not pleasing in our every-day life; how it rests one even to read of a beautiful spotless character!"

Little did I think when we held that conversation together one cold November day, when my pretty niece Grace sat by my side, that the time would ever come when I, her prosy matter-of-fact aunt, would write the story of her life! If any of my readers are of the same mind as was Grace, let them turn away from these pages, for they will find no "common-place" heroine here; that is, no one whose counterpart can be found every day. Of necessity, she must be pretty. How can I make her otherwise, when, as I write, the sweet vision of that child-face rises up before me as I saw at last? She stood at the door of her childhood's home, her hand shading her eyes from the sun's rays, and looked up and down the street to see if the carriage were in sight. "No, mamma, it is not coming; what if they should forget me, after all!" And she laughed a merry, happy, careless laugh, such as we always hear from light-hearted girls. The mother smiled upon her tenderly, but God knew there were tears ready to flow; and that she felt more desolate at the separation about to take place than did her pretty child. She knew better than Grace what the world, which she was to enter, was like.

It was a quiet little parlor where Grace stood, nothing gorgeous or rich about it, yet in every nook and corner it whispers that here is home. A humble, lowly spot, but a precious home for all that.—Moving hither and thither, from door to window, back and forth, as though she must keep her hands occupied, is a beautiful woman of about forty. Her every motion is grace, and though there are marks of grief and care upon her brow, still, a light from her eyes says, as plainly, "I have no fear; One wiser than I knows what is best!"

There are uncles and aunts, cousins and friends, assembled to bid this young spirit "God speed!" The minutes flit rapidly by, and here at last is the coach. Nothing more but to tie the cloak and put on the hat, and our heroine is ready. Kisses are given, the "God bless you" is whispered by the lips which tremble and dare not speak aloud; the mother folds her child once more in her arms, and then she steps forth into the sunshine. She has left her home; when she returns to it she will no longer be the thoughtless, light-hearted maiden. When she next feels her mother's kiss, experience will have taught her something of what life is—life of which she knows so little, and thinks she knows so much!

So I saw her last, waving her hand from the coach window to those who loved her at home, and there was nothing common about her. Her rich, brown hair was gathered back from her low, broad forehead, and the pink roses in her traveling bonnet were no fresher in their color than was the sweet blush upon her cheek. Her brown eyes were soft and melting as she looked her farewell, and though her sweet, red lips were tremulous, still there was the same loving smile for all.

Some of her friends accompanied her to the boat, and watched it and her sail away down the river and disappear behind the blue hills beyond. Ah, that her life might flow on, as clear and as smooth as that great river on that sunny day in June!

I will not dwell upon the loneliness of her mother, and those of us who knew and loved her after our sunbeam left us. We missed her every moment of the day—her sweet voice and merry laugh in the house, and her gentle "Good-night" when we separated at evening.

At thirty years of age Grace Harvard's mother was left a widow, with three little children, of whom Grace was the eldest, then a child of eight years. For ten years Mrs. Harvard had been the adored wife of one of the noblest of God's creatures; but when his Father was ready to call him home, he bade his wife and little ones farewell without a murmur, knowing that all was well. And this patient, devoted mother turned her thoughts to these helpless ones, and tho' the world seemed cold and empty to her, still she prayed for strength, and felt that her beloved one was ever near her, and that he would be her guardian angel still and help her children's feet from straying.

Ten years passed away, making many changes in the widow and her orphans. At the age of eighteen, Grace proposed leaving home, that she might render herself independent, and not turn to her mother for all she needed. She was desirous that her brother Harry should have a collegiate education, and she knew her mother could not give it to him. Harry, a bright, splendid boy of fourteen, would be sadly grieved if he could not enter Harvard with his companions. Grace knew that if she gave up to him her share of the small property their father left, he would be enabled to fulfil his desire and continue his studies; therefore, on his account she leaves her pleasant home where she has been the petted darling for so many years. A friend procures for her a situation as governess in the family of Mr. Clinton, in a town five hundred miles from home; so there we shall see her installed, and commencing her duties on the Monday following that on which she left us with so many bright smiles and affectionate caresses.

Her charges are the three little children of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton—Mary, George, and Jeannie. They were charming little pupils, and Grace soon became as fond of them as they of her. Pleasant were the hours spent in their large, sunny school-room, and numerous were the rambles they enjoyed together in the deep woods round about Mendota. Saturday was general holiday for them all; and a pretty sight it was when, with a basket on her arm containing dinner, Grace would lead the way from the hall through the garden, out to the wild freedom of those old groves and shady valleys.

One day when she had walked with them farther than usual, George exclaimed: "Come, Miss Harvard, and sit on mossy knoll, and tell us one of your nice stories!"

So, under the spreading oak-trees they seated themselves, and Grace commenced one of her ever-fresh fairy tales, while her eager listeners sat with their eyes fastened upon her face, in deep attention, little Mary standing by her and twining in Grace's hair the green leaves and bright berries of the glistening ivy, which she had gathered during their walk.—Grace was unconscious of the charming tableau she made, sitting there by the singing brook, the clear sky and bright sun overhead, and the flickering shadows chasing one another over her face and form. Suddenly, the quiet of the place was broken by the sound of approaching steps, and presently there appeared before them a gentleman who stopped, with amazement and admiration, as he beheld the group before him. Grace colored beneath his earnest gaze. He bowed slightly, and then said:—

"Pardon me for interrupting you; but I have been wandering about by myself, with no thought of meeting any one in these deep old woods. However, as we have met, why not commence a friendship here as anywhere? If I mistake not, you are Miss Harvard, the daughter of one of the dearest friends of my father. You may have heard your mother sometimes mention her husband's college chum, Hal Harlow."

"Indeed I have," answered Grace, tears filling her eyes, as she remembered the story her mother had often told of her father's love of study, and how he would have been obliged to give up his books had not his good friend Harlow stepped forward, and by means of his wealth, so generously offered, enabled him to finish his college course. "Indeed I have, and I would be glad to introduce to you your father's namesake, my noble little brother Harry."

"I hope I may some day see him," replied the young man. "I happened here only by chance; have been in town but a week, and heard last evening, thro' a friend, that Miss Grace Harvard was to spend the summer here. I intended to call upon you to-day, but am very happy to meet you here, and hope you will consent to number among your friends Charles Harlow."

As Mr. Harlow spoke, he looked again into the sweet, brown eyes raised so trustingly to him. She extended her hand, and he held the tiny fingers for a moment in his own. From that hour Grace did count him among her friends! Did she think of him only as a friend? Ah! deeper in the secret places of her heart, down in the lowest depths, where no emotion had ever lived before, was the face of Charles Harlow ever present! He was a welcome visitor at the house of Mr. Clinton, for he was everywhere a favorite. The children complained, sometimes, that they no longer had Miss Grace alone, for they always met Mr. Harlow. Grace heard their complaints, and said nothing; for she knew how her heart beat with delight, and how her cheek would glow, when in these rambles she could descry the figure more dear to her than all the world beside. It was the same old story; old, but ever new. She loved him—loved him as her mother once loved, as many have loved; but she believed that her affection for him was deeper and truer than ever woman felt before. So the happy summer time flew by—the summer of Grace's life!

Each day they met; he the polished man of the world, she the simple wayside flower. She was pure and fresh; ready to bestow love, and eager to receive it. She allowed her foolish heart to bestow its all, unasked. She had not learned that the maiden must stand back in the shade, and give no token, till the youth with eager glances and burning words should choose to speak.

Charles Harlow thought he fully understood the human heart. He had mingled in ladies' society for many years; but for all that, with all his knowledge, and his beauty, and his intellect he could not read the simple, little soul that opened to him every day. Perhaps it was too pure for his eyes; perhaps, having looked so long upon dark and worldly things, the light of Heaven, which shone over her spirit, was too white and brilliant for his eyes to pierce to what lay below! So, though he would have died rather than cause her a sorrow, he lingered near her, walked and rode, read and conversed with her till the end!

Ah, why need our darling learn so early that those who love must suffer? She confided all her little interests to her friend; he had been an attentive listener, and had made her his confidants. His confidante? Yes, of many of his thoughts and deeds, but of the one great subject nearest his heart he never spoke to her. Why did he keep that back? It was from no evil motive. He loved this simple, little Grace, as he would have loved an own sister, had God ever given him one. He never dreamed that she was pouring out all her devotion at his feet. He loved her as he said he did; but the poor child little knew, when they sat together near some babbling brook, with the last rays of the sun forming a halo round her head, or as they walked through the winding paths of the pleasant groves, or met at village festival, that far away, amid the din of a great city, in an elegant mansion, such as she had never seen, there was a spoiled and petted child of fortune, who would, before another summer had fled, be his bride. Oh, was there no good angel to whisper to the innocent child that she loved?

At last the day came which was to take him from her. He had spent the summer in Mendota, and now, he told her, he must go. With swelling heart and drooping eyes she asked him if they

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE COUNTY.

THURSDAY, MAY 18, 1865.

The Day of Humiliation and Mourning.

PROCLAMATION BY GOVERNOR MILLER OF MINNESOTA.

WHEREAS, The President of the United States has, by a proclamation issued by him, appointed and set apart the FIRST DAY OF JUNE NEXT, "to be observed wherever in the United States the flag of the country may be respected, as a day of humiliation and mourning," for the death of Abraham Lincoln, our late President, and "for again humbling ourselves before Almighty God, in order that the bereavement may be sanctified to the nation," now,

Therefore, I, STEPHEN MILLER, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby earnestly request the people of Minnesota to observe the said 1st day of June next in the manner recommended by the President of the United States, "by assembling in their respective places of worship, there to unite in solemn service to Almighty God, in memory of the good man who has been removed, so that all shall be occupied at the same time in contemplation of his virtues, and sorrow for his sudden and violent end;" and I also suggest that all business and labor be suspended on that day, so that it can be observed solemnly and devotedly by all good citizens in the usual manner of Fasting and Prayer to Almighty God, to the end that he may remove his chastening hand from the Nation, and grant unto us the blessings of peace, prosperity, of fraternal intercourse between all sections of our beloved land, and the perpetuity of our government.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my name and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the Capitol, in the City of St. Paul, this Second day of May, in the Year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five. STEPHEN MILLER.

By the Governor:
DAVID BLAKELY, Secretary of State.

LETTERS TO SCHOOL BOARDS—No 2.

Gentlemen:—In a former communication I called your attention to the necessity of repairing your school houses, adopting a uniformity of text books, and establishing general rules for the conduct of the school. I now desire to offer a few suggestions upon a point which seems to me to be of vital importance, viz:—The necessity of an official visitation of the schools. Every school officer should visit frequently, all the schools in his district. First—Because the law makes it his imperative duty to do so. Second—His individual interest requires it, and Third—The character of the future will depend very much upon the integrity and fidelity of officers to the rules at present in force for their guidance and protection. It is the duty of the officer to obey the law, because it is just, and his acceptance of a position which the law creates, implies his positive agreement to comply with its requisitions. The law is founded in wisdom, and seeks through its ingenuous application, to develop that high tone of moral and intellectual character, which alone affords a sure guaranty for the perpetuation of a government founded upon a recognition of the natural equality of all men. You are to act your part in bringing about a high condition of national excellence, as though you alone were responsible. If you fail to perform your part under the rule prescribing your duty, a total failure of the beneficent design of the law, may justly be wholly attributed to you, because the law requires of you an obedience as absolute, as unconditional, and as thorough and cordial as though it were made but for one school district, and the guidance of but one Board of School Officers.

Again, you should obey the law, because it is that which secures to you all the social and political privileges you enjoy, and a failure on your part would argue that you consider the condition of anarchy and heathenism, which prevailed in the early history of the world, preferable to the present state of civilization and intelligence. The law defining the duties of school officers, is one of a grand system of principles, which constitutes the greatness of the American people, and if this one is interrupted in its action, or lost sight of and forgotten, it will as sensibly effect the operation of the whole, as an aberration of the earth from its accustomed path around the sun would the Solar System. I do not say that the vitality of the whole structure would be lost, and the entire host of celestial bodies rush, without restraint of law, into indiscriminate ruin, reducing a grand universe to chaos: A hand or a foot may be severed from the trunk, and the vital organs still perform their proper functions for the prolongation of life, but the beauty and symmetry of the whole form would be destryed. So of the Common School. If it is not properly cared for, nurtured and protected, the minds of our youth will be dwarfed and perverted to viscious practices, and the good man's pride, the patriot's trust and the nation's hope be engulfed in irretrievable ruin.

Therefore, gentlemen, you owe to the district in which you reside, a constant and vigorous discharge of your official duty. You are the vanguard in the triumphal march of progress, and the throng which follows your footsteps will be vast, eager, and intelligent, or puerile, insipid and debased: in the same proportion that you are active and faithful, or tardy, vascillating and recreant.

Visit the schools, then, frequently, counsel with the teachers, encourage the scholars, create an educational enthusiasm, which shall extend throughout the district, and not the district alone, but through the county and State, and you shall have schools in which your children will grow up virtuous and intelligent ornaments in society, and blessings to the world. Do this, and you will stand as good citizens of a great nation, honored by your county, and secure under the protection of its laws.

Yours truly,
A. A. HARWOOD.

NEW-YORK CORRESPONDENCE.

The Rolling Deep—Fortress Monroe—Beaufort, N. C.—And a Tramp into the Interior.

NEW YORK CITY, May 11, 1865.

MR. EDITOR:—With your permission, I make my best bow to your readers, and throw in a little gossip about a trip from which I have just returned, without extra charge, begging them to remember the old story of "You'd scarce expect one of my age," &c.:

I left this city April 16th, as the second in command of a detachment of recruits for Sherman's army, numbering 700, composed of volunteers, drafted men and substitutes, in the staunch side-wheeler "Herman Livingston." As we passed down the inner bay, dotted with the thousand sails that help make up our Merchant Marine, various were the wondering expressions of the men who came from that part of the country where salt water is sold by the pint, and when the officer hailed us from the guard ship, at the "Narrows," to know our lading and destination, one of them feelingly remarked, "What business is it of his I should like to know."

We soon passed Forts Hamilton, where the famous Lincoln (20-inch) gun is mounted; Lafayette, where the rebel officers are confined; Richmond, "the Fortress Monroe of the North," that mounts a thousand guns, and Sandy Hook, where we discharged our Pilot, and was then fairly out upon the "billowy deep," and "billowy" it was with a vengeance. The rail was soon lined with a "gaping" crowd, eager to "cast up" their accounts with Father Neptune, nor were we (for the subscriber was "in for it," and as sea-sick as the sickest) stingy in the matter of payment, but gave all we had with a sublimity and grace that must be seen and felt to be appreciated.

But I must drive on or I never shall get to my journey's end. Here I am only just getting sea-sick, when I ought to be in Hampton Roads, so I will pass over the "squall at night," the school of porpoises we saw the next day, and by the guard ship of Cape Henry and let fall our "mud hook," and come to anchor 100 yards from the largest and strongest fort on the American Continent. To those who have seen it, I will say that it looks the same as ever, and to those who have not, I will not sicken by an attempt to describe it, but will give them a faint idea of its size by saying that it is 1¼ miles round its parapet.

We soon went to sea again, and made quick time round Cape Hatteras, where mariners usually expect and meet a storm, and into Beaufort river. Upon landing, we were agreeably surprised to learn that instead of going to Goldsboroon on the cars, we would be allowed to march there, a distance of 125 miles, and so we marched. The people along the road were in a wretched condition, stripped of everything, and drawing rations from the benevolent kinsman they strove so hard to kill—the kind-hearted, open-handed Uncle Sam, besides being the most ignorant, narrow-minded set I ever saw anywhere in the South. Dozens of old men and women whom I conversed with, had never been out of the county they were born in. They read no papers, and only know of the North as the place where "you alls" come from. Some of their expressions are curious to a Northerner. Upon inquiring the distance to a creek or "branck," in Southern parlance, where we wanted camp for the night, of an old woman we found sitting in the shade of "her own vine and fig tree," and DIPPING SNUFF, the answer was, "Two sights and a right smart go ahead!" "Are there any wells there?" "One on e side, and right smart on you side!" (one on this, and several on the other side.) "Is there any water between here and there?" "Wal, I don't reckon thar is." This "dipping" is a curious and almost universal habit of theirs, but so disgusting in detail that I will pass it by.

One touch of romance I must jot down, on condition that none of you joke me on the subject, should I ever make my appearance there, when "this cruel war is over."

Near Newbern lives a very beautiful young lady; one of the "F. F. V's," and so beautiful that her fame has spread for miles. As our company ground for the night was near her estate, I concluded to primp up and go and see her. So after washing down a hasty camp supper with a cup of coffee, I put on a "biled shirt," (don't blush ladies.) forced my darkey to overheat himself by his spasmodic efforts on my coat, shoes and hat, and started for the residence of the enchanting creature. As I drew near, I discovered her standing on the porch, as if to bid me welcome. Ye Gods, how am I favored, (thought I,) by the sight of this heavenly being. It would be sinful to attempt to describe her by the words that novel writers are apt to use in the description of their heroines. What! liken that form to venus; that hair to the raven's wing; those eyes to stars; those teeth to pearls; call those lips a cherry red; away sacriligious thought. I continued to advance, until I stood before her. She held out her hand and opened her lips as if about to bless me—me—a poor groveling worm. But no, the words she spoke were these, "Mister, I reckon yer have got a chaw of terbacker about yer old clothes, haven't yer?" What a change "came o'er the spirit of my dream;" how suddenly she came down from the height to which my imagination had raised her, and stood before me as one of the ignorant, slatternly, "poor white trash" of that region. I stood aghast a moment, and then politely informed her that "I didn't use the weed," and went back to camp a sadder, if not a wiser man.

The rest of our march was without incident of special notice. On our arrival at Goldsboro, we found Sherman's army just starting for Washington, by way of Richmond.

On the return trip I noticed nothing new, except that, in Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia, and New-York, everybody is "going off" with the "Mexican fever." If our government does not issue a proclamation against these "emigrants" as Fillibusters, I think 50,000 will leave these four cities in the next month, for the general rendezvous at Ft. Smith, Arkansas, from where they march to Lonora and Chihuahua, every man with a good rifle in his hand, as a "protection against Indians."

Yours, G. E.

—The Navy Department has received information of the capture on the 11 instant, of the Rebel sloop Florida, with a cargo of cotton, and the Rebel sloop Annie, with a cargo of loose cotton, off Crystal River, Florida, by the United States schooner Sea-Bird, tender to the United States steamer Hebiscus.

—On the 9th inst. Jeff. Davis, after dividing a portion of dis specie among his escort informed those with him that they would have to look out for their personal safety. He then started with a few friends for the coast, but before reaching it he was captured.

—Gov. Vance has been arrested at the house of his father-in-law, in Buncomde County, N. C. It is said he is to be tried for treason.

—Large nnmbers of the paroled prisoners of Lee's and Johnston's armies are traveling through East Tennessee, robbing and plundering the people generally.

—The Washington National Intelligencer says that the ram Stonewall was supplied with coal at Nassau, and that the act will lead to a remonstrance by our Government.

—A Washington correspondent asserts that it is known there that the Emperor Maximilian and Kirby Smith have recently been in negotiation.

—The rapidity with which President Johnson dispatches public business is remarked by all who visit the executive office. He takes hold of every routine matter in the order in which it comes up and finishes it at the moment with the aid of put two Clerks.

—It is now stated that the paper found on the person of Booth, implicating Jeff. Davis in the crime of the former, was in cypher, and that it was read by means of another document written in a similar character previously found in Davis's house at Richmond.

—The great clock that stands on the walk in front of the Fifth Avenue Hotel, New York, and has not stobped since the building was erected is now motionless, and the hands indicate 22 minutes past 7—the point of time when Mr. Lincoln died.

—A John Bull conversing with an Indian asked him if he knew the sun never sets on the Queen's dominions. "No," said the Indian.

"Do you know the reason why?" asked John. "Because God was afraid to trust an Englishman in the dark," was the dusky savage's reply.

—The wickedness of the rebel leaders is only equaled by their meanness. In the warehouse of Haxall & Co., in Richmond, was discovered a lot of blankets, from 500 to 1,000 marked U. S., which it was confessed were stolen from our men imprisoned there, not one of whom had a blanket during the past winter.

—John C. Heenan, the pugilist, has married an English lassie, and settled down to private life.

—Hon. Charles J. Faulkner, of Virginia, a notorious rebel, formerly a member of the United States Congress, returned to his home in Martinsburg a few days ago and reported himself to the Provost Marshal. He hadn't got many steps from the Marshal when a thick-booted gentleman gave him a kicking that will make a sitting posture uncomfortable to him for some weeks to come.

—The notorious rebel spy, Belle Boyd has come to grief in England. She has been turned pennyless out of her hotel, and the landlord retained her baggage as security for his bill. She has also parted with her jewelry and is in a state of great destitution. "The way of the transgressor is hard,"

The strict enforcemt and execution of this order is especialy enjoined upon the commanding officers of all the United States forces within territorial limits to which it applies.

According to an order of the War Department, the Adjutant-General has been directed to commence mustering honorably out of service all general field and staff officers, who are unemployed or whose service is no longer needed.

BILLIARD SALOON

Next Saturday, on Main Street, for the accommodation of those who wish to participate in such exercises. A RESTAURANT will be opened also at the same place for those who may desire.

U.S.7-30 LOAN

The sale of the first series of $300,000,000 of the 7-30 Loan was completed on the 31st of March, 1865. The sale of the second series of Three Hundred Millions, payable three years from the 15th day of June, 1865, was begun on the 1st of April. In the short space of thirty days, over One Hundred Millions of this series have been sold—leaving this day less than Two Hundred Millions to be disposed of. The interest is payable semi-annually in currency on the 15th of December and 15th of June, by coupons attached to each note, which are readily cashed anywhere. It amounts to

One cent	per day on a			$50	note.
Two cents	"	"	"	$100	"
Ten	"	"	"	$500	"
20	"	"	"	$1000	"
$1		"	"	$5000	"

More and More Desirable.

The Rebellion is suppressed, and the Government has already adopted measures to reduce expenditures as rapidly as possible to a peace footing, thus withdrawing from market as borrower and purchaser. This is the

ONLY LOAN IN MARKET

now offered by the Government, and constitutes the Great Popular Loan of the People.

The Seven-Thirty Notes are convertible on their maturity, at the option of the holder, into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.

GOLD-BEARING BONDS,

Which are always worth a premium.

FREE FROM TAXATION.

The 7-30 Notes cannot be taxed by Towns, Cities, Counties or States, and the interest is not taxed unless on a surplus of the owner's income exceeding six hundred dollars a year. This fact increases their value from one to three per cent. per annum, according to the rate levied on other property.

SUBSCRIBE QUICKLY.

Less than $200,000,000 of the Loan authorized by the last Congress are now on the market. This amount, at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within two months, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans. It now seems probable that no considerable amount beyond the present series will be offered to the public.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders. JAY COOKE,
SUBSCRIPTION AGENT, Philadelphia.
May 1st, 1865. v3n4m6

SUBSCRIPTIONS WILL BE RECEIVED by the FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF ROCHESTER, FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF ST. PAUL, SECOND NATIONAL BANK OF ST. PAUL.

STATE OF MINNESOTA, County of Steele, ss. April 27, 1865. In relation to the estate of Jane Chapin. On reading and filing the petition of Henry Chapin, for administration of the aforesaid estate, and to be appointed Guardian to the minor children of said Jane, deceased. Ordered that public notice be given by causing a true copy of this order to be published three weeks successively in the PLAINDEALER, a newspaper published at Owatonna, prior to Tuesday the 16th day of May next, that all persons interested may then appear at a Probate Court, to be holden at the office of the Judge in Medford, at ten o'clock A. T. E. HUGHES, P. M.

June 1, 1865.

☞ PREACHING.—Elder DEAN will preach next Sunday morning and evening, at the usual time and place.

☞ ATLANTIC.—We have just received the Atlantic Monthly for June. Its arrival caused many smiling faces, and it is highly esteemed by its numerous readers.

☞ FOR SALE.—Elder DEAN desires to sell his house and lot immediately; also, a Cook-Stove, nearly new, Melodeon, Bedsteads, 1 Set of Chairs and a Washtub. He also desires his friends to aid him in selling out, as he wishes to pay his debts and leave for Minneapolis next week.

☞ FOURTH OF JULY.—The citizens of Owatonna are requested to meet at the School House next Monday evening, at 7½ o'clock, May 29th, for the purpose of making arrangements for celebrating our National Independence, on the 4th of July next.

By order of Many Citizens.

☞ PHOTOGRAPHING.—G. W. CHESLEY has just returned home, after an absence of nearly a month, and is now better prepared than ever before to do first-class work. Any wishing a perfect picture of themselves, should call immediately, as he intends to leave again about the first of June.

☞ THE Phrenological Journal, published by FOWLER & WELLS, New-York, is conducted with much ability on the science of Phrenology, and merits the approbation of the public generally. It is a journal of much practical utility, and is highly interesting and useful to all lovers of this interesting science.

☞ "OUR YOUNG FOLKS," for June, has arrived in good season. It contains much interesting reading for the young, and is well calculated to diffuse into the rising generation those principles which are so essentially necessary for their prosperity and happiness. Published monthly, by TICKNOR & FIELDS, Boston, Mass.

☞ RETURNING.—We notice quite a number of emigrant teams returning from the neighborhood of New Ulm, in consequence of the depredations being committed by the Indians. A man from that section a few days since, reports that six families had been murdered by the savages, in or near that locality. The report may be true, but we are inclined to believe the report exaggerated.

☞ SOUSE.—Any person desiring Pickeled Souse, will be able to find it at Mr. HANKS, as we are informed he designs amputating the surplus ears of his Jack, mules and other long eared species, which will be more than he needs for his own consumption, as soon as his plums near his house get in the condition for making a quantity of vinegar.

☞ SEWING MACHINE.—We call attention to Willcox & Gibbs' Sewing Machine advertisement, on fourth page of this number. It is said to be the most perfect Machine of the kind now in use, as its machinery is simple and runs without noise. It sews the finest of fabrics as well as the coarsest, and so simple that a child can readily learn to use it. Mr. STRATTON, of St. Anthony, is the General Agent in this State.

☞ IMPROVEMENTS.—J. W. DRESSER has bought two lots of Rev. H. CHAPIN, on Oak St., and has commenced the erection of a resident building upon them.

Mr. WIMAN is building a residence on Broadway, east of Dr. HARSHA'S.

A store is being erected on Oak Street, opposite the Winship House, and is nearly completed.

M. QUIGGLE is building a very nice brick house on Oak Street, south of the Winship House, which he designs for his own use.

☞ BUILDING.—J. W. DRESSER has again commenced building on Broadway. Last Monday he began breaking the ground on the north side of Broadway, for the erection of a brick block 44x60, two stories high. No doubt but the building will go up rapidly, as Mr. DRESSER is known to be a man that goes into whatever he undertakes, with energy and perseverance.

We notice that EZRA ABBOTT has given him the privilege of making all the brick he wants on his land, near Mrs. WEBSTER'S, and a gang of men are now at work on the yard. Mr. ABBOTT has shown by this act, that he takes a lively interest in the prosperity of the city, and merits the approbation of all who desire to see our city prosper.

GRACE HARVARD.

would ever meet again. Cheerily he answered, yes; that when she returned to her mother's home, he should visit her. And so they talked, that last night she could be with him, as they strolled together up and down in the still moonlight. The hours of that evening seemed like moments, and as the moon was sinking out of sight, he took her hand, and said:—

"Now, my little sister, I must leave you; never forget me, for I shall often think of our pleasant summer together; and we can live it over again in thought till we meet." She clung closer to him, but dared not speak. He continued: "You must not be sad, for there are many here who love you, and I shall always remember my darling little Grace, the sister of my heart!" He folded her in his arms for a moment, pressed one kiss upon her cheek, and another upon her forehead, and with a murmured "God bless you," he was gone!

She stood where he had left her, till the night air made her shiver, and the moon hid herself behind the hills; and then, sick at heart and too ill to think, she entered the house, and going to her room, threw herself, dressed as she was, upon the bed, hoping that the morning and the sunlight would bring him back. Ah, never, any more!

With returning day she understood it all. She had learned the first lesson the world had to offer her, and the perusal of that page, so sweet, and yet so bitter, had broken her heart!

* * * * * * *

One year has passed away since Grace and her friend parted in the garden at Mendota. One year with its joys and its sorrows, and now she is no longer the bright-eyed, laughing maiden; she is a woman who has known suffering, who suffers still! She gave her all, her heart's affection, unasked, and when it was not accepted, her spirit was crushed.

Never before had she known the slightest sorrow, and when this bitter cup was given her to drink, she could not bear it. She uttered no complaint; she grew weaker each day, and finally was obliged to abandon her duties as teacher, and return to her mother. In place of the light-hearted child who left that home, was a sad, broken-spirited woman. Her eyes grew larger and clearer, the color on her cheek deepened, but it was not the hue of health. Each day her hand grew more transparent, and her slight form more wasted. Her sweet face became even more saintly in its expression than before. Her voice was as gentle, and her words as kind and loving as ever. Her mother grieved to see her precious child fading from her sight, and slipping from her grasp. "Will nothing keep her back?" No, frail child of earth, murmur not; trust in your Heavenly Father, and He will give you strength; your burden will not be heavier than you can bear.

One evening Grace said: "Sit by me, dearest mamma, through the night, for I feel that, upon earth, I shall never see another sun arise. In Heaven, mamma, I shall soon meet those we love. How strange it seems, that, while you are still journeying on your lonely way, I shall be at rest! I, your little child, shall be safe in Heaven, where I can never suffer more; where nothing will ever grieve me, and where I can love and be loved! I am young to die, but my life has been long enough. You will not mourn and wish me back, for I long to go. It makes me happy to think how near home I am; and it will be but a little while before we meet again. Perhaps I shall be allowed to come for you, when God is ready to take you home. Oh, how gently I will kiss away your spirit; and how quiet and full of rest is the thought that, in Heaven, we shall never be separated—never separated, dear mamma, from those we love! I'm tired now; kiss me, mother, and I'll go to sleep!"

With one loving caress, and a sweet smile, she closed her eyes and fell asleep, such a deep, peaceful slumber! She never woke again. Without a struggle, she gave up her life into the hands of the Great Father, who had placed her cross upon her, that through suffering she might be made perfect.

☞ "Oh dear!" exclaimed Mary, throwing herself into a rocking-chair, "I'll never go to the post-office again to be looked out of countenance by all those men on the sidewalk. It's so provoking! What can I do, Minerva, to stop those awful men from staring me so in the face?" "Show your ancles," said Minerva.

☞ There is a man in this city so ugly that with six frowns he can kill a bulldog.

☞ A burning shame—Arson.

WILLCOX & GIBBS SEWING MACHINE

WILL STITCH, HEM, FELL, TUCK, CORD. Bind, Braid, Quilt, and Embroider beautifully. It will, with the finest needle and thread, run from perfect work on the finest Nainsook, over the heaviest beaver cloth and cowhide, with no change of needle, thread or tension.

Will use coarse cotton, linen, silk and twine. It runs easier, faster and stiller than any other machine. It forms a flat, even and elastic seam, differing from every other stitch, each loop being twisted by means of the and drawing the twist into the goods, thus securely fastening every stitch, so that the seam will bear to be cut at frequent intervals, and in that case even, the seam is warranted NOT TO RIP in wear, and under all circumstances to "survive the washtub." Old worn out garments, bosoms, pants, dresses, &c., have been submitted to Committees at FAIRS where was the greatest competition, and to THIS STITCH premiums have been awarded for its SUPERIORITY, DURABILITY, ELASTICITY and BEAUTY.

A Patented Device prevents the possibility of the machine being run in the wrong direction, or the balance wheel ever wearing or touching the dress. By another ingenious Patent improvement,

The Needle cannot be set Wrong,

Thus avoiding the great trouble of other machines. In this it is so easy that a child may set it in the dark with unerring correctness every time.

NO BREAKING OF NEEDLES.

The blade of the needle is less than ¾ of an inch long, and is straight. It is less than half the length of other machine needles, many of which are curved, therefore more easily bent or broken—a great source of annoyance, expense and trouble.

The Hemmer and Feller can never be set Wrong.

Any one may adjust them in the dark. The hem may be of any width. No other hemmer or feller is like this. It turns the hem on the right or upper side, as you want it.

It will not Drop Stitches;

As the needle is always set right, the blade short and straight does not vibrate like longer ones.

Is run by steam at 4000 stitches per minute—other machines only at 400 to 1200, with safety.

They are manufactured with

MATHEMATICAL PRECISION,

Hence each part is interchangeable, and can be readily replaced in case of accident.

They will not get out of order.

We have known it intimately for several years.—Many thousands are already in use here, and so far as we know, not one in family use has ever cost a dime to repair, or ever been out of order at all.—They will last a generation, if properly cared for. None who have used it can be persuaded to use any other.

Works at an instant's notice, and never stops "unaccountably." Not one operator in ten on the Willcox & Gibbs will break a needle or drop a stitch in a year. The Willcox & Gibbs, in the hands of any one, knows no "skips," "drops," "jumps" or "misses." The roundness, evenness, durability and beauty of its stitch

WERE NEVER EQUALED.

Its rapidity, absolute stillness, ease of motion, narrowness and neatness of its HEM and FELL were NEVER APPROACHED by any other machine. We can call in any boy or girl from the street, and with three minutes instruction they will set needle, attach the Hemmer, or Feller, and do the work with entire success. A blind girl, with the exception of threading the needle, can do the same. Many ladies owning other first-class machines, come to our office to do their fine hemming and felling on the Willcox & Gibbs Machine.

The PRESS universally pronounce this the best family Sewing Machine in the world.

We are General Agents for

BARNUM'S SELF-SEWER,

FOR ALL SEWING MACHINES.

It guides the work itself, thus avoiding the bent posture and strain on the eyes. Price $1.50.—Large Discount to Agents.

Editors who desire one of these machines on half advertising contracts, can insert this advertisement, send us their paper, and get a machine at any time.

We take other machines in exchange. We sell OIL, COTTON, SILK, TWIST and NEEDLES for every kind of sewing machine.

Is entirely noiseless.

A PATENTED DEVICE prevents its being turned backward.

The PATENTED NEEDLE cannot be set wrong.

The PATENTED HEMMER AND FELLER AND BRAIDER cannot be set wrong.

It runs faster than any other.

It will never drop a stitch.

It is the only practical machine which all can use.

It does the finest and neatest work ever known, and all varieties of family sewing in the most perfect manner.

No other machine takes the "TWISTED LOOP STITCH."

It cannot be adjusted or got out of order.

It uses the "Rotating Hook."

Whatever the merits of other machines, it is no disparagement to say the Willcox & Gibbs is worth, for family use, double that of any other ever offered to the public.

The Gold Medal at the American Institute, and numerous First Premiums at State Fairs, and at the meetings Mecanical and Scientific Societies all over the world, are among its trophies.

It is now the Great Leading Family Sewing Machine all over the World.

The Grand Fair of the New England States, held at Springfield, awarded the highest premium to the Willcox & Gibbs, as the Best Family Sewing Machine.

The award is as follows:

"The Willcox & Gibbs' Machine is very simple, efficient, and easily understood. We award The First Premium (medal) to the Willcox & Gibbs Machine as the Best Family Machine."

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED

STOMACH BITTERS.

A pure and powerful Tonic, corrective and alternative of wonderful efficacy in diseases of the Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirit, Constipation, Colic; Intermittent Fevers, Cramps and spasms, and all complaints of either Sex, arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or produced by causes.

NOTHING that is not wholesome, genial and restorative in its nature enters into the compression of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind, no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant; but it is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

It is well to be forearmed against disease, and, so far as the human system can be protected by human means against maladies engendered by an unwholesome atmosphere, impure water and other external causes, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS may be relied on as a safeguard.

In districts infested with Fever and Ague, it has been found infallible as a preventative and irresistible as a remedy and thousands who resort to it under apprehension of an attack escape the scourge; and thousands who neglect to avail themselves of its protective qualities in advance, are cured by a very brief course of this marvelous medicine. Fever and Ague patients, after being plied with quinine for months in vain, until fairly saturated with that dangerous alkaloid, are not unfrequently restored to health within a few days by the use of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated and the appetite restored by this agreeable Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of DYSPEPSIA and in less confirmed forms of INDIGESTION. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the CONSTIPATION superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is most conclusive, and from both sexes

The agony of BILLOUS COLIC is immediately assuaged by a single dose of the stimulant, and by occasionally resorting to it, the return of the complaint may be prevented.

As a General Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional weakness, Premature Decay and Debility and Decepitude arising from OLD AGE, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to reenforce and re-establish them.

Last, but not least, it is The Only Safe Stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

No family medicine has been so universally, and it may be truly added, deservedly popular with the intelligent portion of the community, as HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.

HARPER'S NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE.

"Unquestionably the best sustained work of the kind in the World,"

Critical Notices of the Press.

It is the foremost Magazine of the day. The fireside never had a more delightful companion, nor the million a more enterprising friend, than Harper's Magazine.—Methodist Protestant (Baltimore.)

The most popular Monthly in the world.—New York Observer.

We must refer in terms of eulogy to the high tone and varied excellences of HARPER'S MAGAZINE—a journal with a monthly circulation of about 170,000 copies—in whose pages are to be found some of the choicest light and general reading of the day. We speak of this work as an evidence of the American People, and the popularity it has acquired is merited. Each number contains fully 144 pages of reading matter, appropriately illustrated with good wood-cuts; and it combines in itself the two monthly and the more philosophical quarterly, blended with the best features of the daily journal. It has great power in the dissemination of a love of pure literature.—TRUBNER'S Guide to American Literature, London.

The volumes bound constitute of themselves a library of miscellaneous reading such as can not be found in the same compass in any other publication that has come under our notice.—Boston Courier.

SUBSCRIPTIONS.—1865.
